

OUR SELLING SERVICES

We offer every level of advice and assistance you may want or need. From a few words of advice if you want to sell yourself, to handling everything for you as an art broker, from finding buyers to negotiating the entire sale and conditions and being the intermediary between you and the buyers.

Let us know how much advice or assistance you want and we will tailor our selling services to meet your needs.

We offer information on when to sell, where to sell, how to sell, to restore or not to restore, how to avoid excessive selling costs, how to minimize risks and sell safely, standard practices and conditions in the art trade, how to handle packing, shipping, insurance, payments and returns.

Depending on the nature and value of your artwork and where it is located, we will help you decide what is the most appropriate way to sell.

Let us know what you need and we will provide the experience and knowhow that will result in a successful sale.
